The proposed budget includes changes from the FY 2022 staff recommended budget presented on March 23, 2021. General Fund proposed changes to the revenue side of the commissioners' proposed budget include the refinement estimates that net to an increase of approximately $2.5 million. The expenses were increased by approximately $1.4 million. This budget also contains changes to the Department of Planning & Zoning and Inspections & Permits Fee Schedule, along with some new fees for reviews, inspections and applications.
